

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Evenings and weekends at home are now much more enjoyable. I used to receive 8 to 10 solicitation calls a week and now I receive very few a month.

Indiana's law is successful and makes one's quality of life better.

Also my Mother, who has Alzheimers and dementia, has been spared many unwanted and expensive costs.